Dear friends,

To paraphrase the late, great, Prince, at this year's Celebrate the Children, "we're gonna party like it's nineteen eighty nine!" And that means looking the part!

To help you get dressed for what promises to be the season's most awesome party, we've assembled this "CTC Look Book."

Maybe you'll opt for 80s Prom style, like I did. Think taffeta, bows, lace, ruffles, and big hair! Or perhaps the Miami Vice look is more your speed—linen suits, no socks, and cool shades. Some of you may channel your inner Madonna or Bowie for an 80s pop look—black leather and lace, chains and lots of gnarly hair gel.

It's also OK to play it safe by simply adding a dash of neon pink or green to your outfit. But whatever you do, have fun, and don't miss Celebrate the Children on April 19!

It's gonna be rad, fer sure!
